Presbyterian
Men's Fellowship
Retreat
Sept. 24th & 25th

Theme:
"Get Real"

Our Speaker: Derek Maul

Derek taught exceptional education for two decades before becoming a full time writer. He pens several newspaper columns, reports for the United Methodist News Service, provides content for Tony Dungy's All Pro Dad website, and travels extensively as a conference leader and keynote speaker. His work has been featured in Guideposts, Chicken Soup for the Soul, Newsweek, USA Today and the Christian Science Monitor. He lives in Brandon.

Weekend Topic: “Get Real” (A spiritual journey for men). The 4 Talks:

- Desire (Do I want to follow Jesus?)
- Discipleship (How do I follow Jesus?)
- Devotion (Falling in love with God)
- Daring (Having the courage to live a life of faith).

Note: All talks will be followed by “Talk It Over” Groups where we can share our ideas.

Friendships:

We hope you will renew existing friendships with other HPPC men. Also, this is a great opportunity to build new friendships with men of all ages. If we only attend worship, chances are we don't have the time to build friendships with other Christian men.

Here is our opportunity. We want HPPC to be a church of strong friendships. We also welcome non-HPPC men. Please feel free to bring a neighbor or friend. He will feel at home and welcomed.

Food: Meals at Cedarkirk are home-cooked and served family style. There are always seconds and homemade yeast rolls with butter. The coffee pot is always on. One thing for sure, you won't go hungry on this retreat.

Lodging: Beds are twin-sized, two to a room. There are in-room sinks and hall-style bathrooms with hot showers. Lodges have porches with rockers and are located in the woods—a beautiful location for our retreat.

Location - Cedarkirk:

Cedarkirk Camp & Conference Center is located in Lithia, FL, near the Fish Hawk Ranch sub-division just off Lithia-Pinecrest Road. Drive time is 1 hour from HPPC so leave adequate time because of “rush hour” traffic.

(Packet w directions mailed after registration received. OR you may go to the Cedarkirk website: Cedarkirk.com)
